 - Transportation Time: Allow up to 1.5 hours to travel to your destination when traveling within Walt Disney World property.
- Dietary Policies
 - Most Walt Disney World Resort table-service restaurants that accept advance reservations can accommodate Kosher needs if requested at least 24 hours in advance by calling (407) WDW-DINE or (407) 939-3463. Guests under age 18 must have parent or guardian permission to call. A credit card is required to guarantee this meal; the full price of ordered meals will be charged if you cancel within one day of the reservation or are a "no show" for the reservation. At family-style or buffet locations, you will only receive one meal; does not include all-you-care-to-eat. You will be charged the regular buffet or all-you-care-to-eat price.
 - All Walt Disney World Resort table-service restaurants that accept reservations offer balanced menu choices and can accommodate lifestyle dining options (such as no sugar added, low-fat, low-sodium, vegetarian or vegan). Please advise a Cast Member of your request at the time you place your order and he or she will be happy to assist. For dinner shows, 24-hour notice is required for any lifestyle menu request.

Our quick-service locations also offer balanced menu choices and can accommodate most lifestyle dining options.

- All Walt Disney World Resort table service restaurants that accept reservations may accommodate special dietary requests (such as allergies to gluten or wheat, shellfish, soy, lactose or milk, peanuts, tree nuts, fish, or eggs) if requested in advance. Please contact specialdiets@disneyworld.com at least 2 weeks prior to your table-service reservation or quick-service dining experience. You may also visit www.disneyworld.com/specialdiets for more information. If you are booking within 2 weeks of your reservation date or otherwise wish to call about your special dietary request, please call (407) 824-5967, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday - Friday. Calls outside of business hours will be returned the next business day. You may also ask to speak to a chef upon arrival at the restaurant.
- This dining facility can accommodate most special dietary needs. Advance notice may be required and cancellation fees may apply. Please indicate any special dietary need at time of reservation booking.
